Puzzle Game

Yesterday, I went to the Smurfit-Stone library on down-town with my brother and my dad.

When we got to the library I went to the room where there is some puzzles. Last time I got a 500 pieces. But this time wanted a harder puzzle. Then my eyes got bigger.

Because I saw a perfect puzzle. It was 1000

pieces, with a picture about Calgary. When I got home with that

I started to make that puzzle.

When the times go by the puzzle got bigger and brighter. I took like 9 hours to finish the puzzle.

It was beautiful. So today I'm going to the library to get another puzzle.

But I have to bring back the Calgary puzzle. What kind of puzzle do you think I'm going to get this time?

The End.
